

BURTON BRADSTOCK FRIENDS CHRISTMAS FAIR 2017 MEETING

Attendees Rachel Brook, Claire Staple, Suzanne Moore, Sian German, Laura Cox, Rachel Thomas, Dee Lanning, Katy Woodrow, Fleur Heaney, Kerry Tancock and Beth Moore

Apologies Nicola Herbert, Kellie Wyatt, Claire Procter, Julian Piper

Jumble Update Claire Staple informed us that Kellie has successfully sold the remainder of the jumble adding a further £25 to the final total. Thank you Kellie!

Quiz Night Review Those present at the Quiz night all agreed that it had been a great success and should be repeated next year if possible but perhaps include a few easier questions!

Sponsored Run Review The sponsored run proved to be a great success and fantastic fundraiser for the school but the goal prizes for the different amounts raised may be changed so that it is a little more equal for all taking part. It was also suggested the event be run every other year.

Cake request Claire Staple asked for cake donations for Wednesday 22nd for the coffee morning in the village hall. Suzanne Moore said she would make a Lemon drizzle and Victoria sponge, Beth Moore a Victoria sponge and Fleur Heaney a Coffee cake.

Christmas Fair plans The following stalls are planned for this year's Christmas fair on December 9th at 10am to 12pm.

Christmas Fair Stalls:-

Refreshments	Rachel & Frankie Thomas
Chocolate Tombola	Karen Spurdle & Sian German Donations to come from a non-uniform day before the fair
Christmas Shop	Alex Wallace Donations to be asked for
Jolly Jars	? Donations from the children with best decoration prizes to be awarded at the fair
Art & Craft Wreaths	Beth Moore Beth has foam wreaths which can be decorated by the children at the fair.
Guess the weight of cake	Julia Handyside
Face Painting/Glitter Tattoo	Fleur Heaney & Natasha Cox
Raffle Tickets Selling	Katy Woodrow and her Mum
Adopt an Animal	Claire Staple Cuddly toy donations required and birth certificates printed. Suzanne and Fleur are willing to wash all the donations first.

Reindeer Racing

Julian

Fleur Heaney said she would ask her husband Michael to help Julian but unfortunately he is working so we need to find Julian a helping hand.

Balloons

Laura Cox

Fleur Heaney said she would look into costing balloons and stick holders.

Charity Stalls Sue Dampney approached Claire Staple to ask if she could have a table at the Fair for her daughter Evie to raise money to go on a charitable event to Nicaragua. It was agreed that she could. There will also be a table for Clare Pimbley who is raising funds for Wessex Cancer trust.

Pet Stockings Fleur Heaney has offered to make pet Christmas stockings for people to order at the fair. They are to be put on Facebook pre fair.

Friends Hamper Suzanne Moore allocated the various items required for the Friends Christmas Hamper.

Donations Various prizes have already been donated for the Christmas Fair Raffle but cuddly toys, wine, toiletries, gifts for parents in the shop are all still required.

Christmas Tree for Bridport United Church Suzanne Moore will sort the Christmas Tree for the church and we will be collecting for the Wessex Cancer Trust.

Christmas Fair Advertising Laura Cox will organise the posters required for advertising the Christmas Fair and a suggestion was made to put them in local preschools.

Christmas Fair Setup We will set up for the fair at 8.30am on December 9th.

Next Friends Meeting The next friends meeting is planned for February 6th at 7pm.

Following the meeting Mark Wellman has agreed to supply the tables for the Fair.