1. Duck Race

It was confirmed by Rachel Brook that permission has been granted from the Parish Council for the Duck Race to go ahead.

Fencing for the race will be delivered on Thursday 29th to the garage in Burton Bradstock and stored until Monday 2nd.

Audrey Smith has a supply of ducks in her garage and will be counted by Alex and Suzanne to confirm numbers.

Rope for the finish line is to be supplied by Fleur and Michael Heaney and ducks collected from the yard and Litton Cheney.

River aids for the day will be Dave Thomas, Michael Heaney, Lewis Moore and Jeremy Disley.

Food will be sold on the day by Maydown Farm like last year which was a great success.

Aleksandra's Chocolate Café will kindly donate a chocolate duck for the 1st prize.

The last place duck prize will be a decorated wooden spoon to be supplied by Michael Heaney.

Ticket Sales will be based at the Burton Bradstock post office, The Horseshoes, The Anchor and the Burton Bradstock garage.

Non Uniform day will go ahead on March 28th in exchange for an easter item for the chocolate tombola at the duck race.

Cream Teas were discussed and will be looked into by Suzanne Moore and cakes will be asked to be donated on the day.

Posters will be issued by Suzanne Moore and allocated to those who are placing around the area and Laura Cox will advertise Duck Race on social media.

Stalls on the day are as follows:-

Coconut Shy – Caitlyn Wellman

Pet a lamb & name the toy lamb– Laura Ferrett

Teddy Bears & Name the Big Bunny – Claire Staple

Chocolate Tombola – Beth Moore & Sian German

Glitter Tattoos – Fleur Heaney & Katy Woodrow
