Messages and Reminders

Clubs

All clubs will be running next week.

The Friends of Burton Bradstock will hold a short meeting on Thursday 28th Sept at 6:30pm in the school hall.

Everyone is invited along to hear what activities and fundraising happened last year and to plan for the year ahead, as well as make decisions about what the fundraising will be spent on. Your ideas and input are very important and we'd love to see you there!

Harvest Service

Our Harvest Service will be next Friday at 9:15am in St. Mary's Church all are welcome.

We will be collecting food for Cupboard Love Food Bank <https://www.bridportfoodbank.org/home>. Please could this be donated by Thursday 28th September.

EYFS Message

You and Me' time will restart in the nest next Tuesday 26th September from 8.40-9am.

This is an opportunity to come into the classroom to see your child in action, pick a 'Snuggle Time' book to take home and share with your family and chat to adults in the room about any questions relating to your child's learning and development.

Owl Class Message

Don't forget to sign your child up to Bikeability via MCAS. An email went home earlier this week to all of year 5 and selected year 6 students.

There are a small number of bikes available for children who do not have a roadworthy bike. If your child needs to borrow a bike for Bikeability, please let the office know as soon as possible.

Little Charlie

Once upon a time there was a little boy called Charlie who lived on the edge of a big, bustling city.

Early one morning he woke up and his mother said, "Take this bag of goodies to your Grandma's." Into the bag she put a slice of cheese, a loaf of bread and a square of chocolate.

Next he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a bridge. There he met a cat – a lean cat, a mean cat. "I'm hungry," said the cat. "What have you got in your bag?" "I've got a slice of cheese, a loaf of bread," – but he kept the chocolate hidden!

"I'll have the cheese please," said the cat. So Charlie gave the cheese to the cat and it ate it all up.

Next he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a pond. There he met a duck – a snowy, white duck. "I'm hungry," said the duck. "What have you got in your bag?" "I've got a slice of cheese, a loaf of bread," – but he kept the chocolate hidden!

"I'll have the bread please," said the duck. So Charlie gave the bread to the duck and it ate it all up.

Next he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a tall town clock – tick tock, tick tock, tick tock. There he met not one, not two but three scruffy pigeons. "We're hungry," said the pigeons. "What have you got in your bag?"

Unfortunately, there was only chocolate! Luckily, Charlie found some crumbs. So, he scattered them on the ground and the pigeons ate them all up.

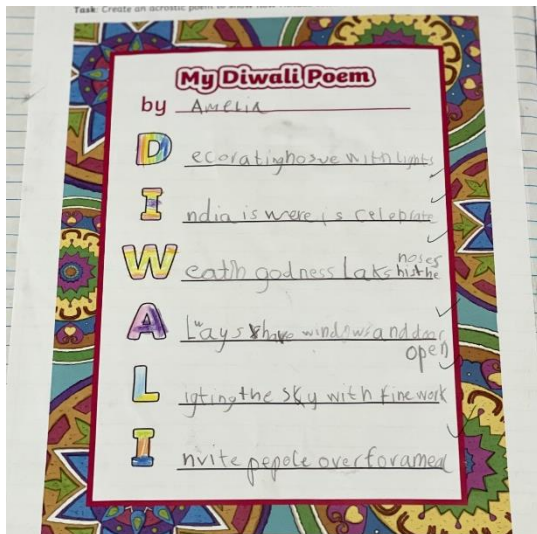

Next he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a crossroads. There he met a ... Nobody. "Mmmm, I'm hungry," said Charlie. "What have I got in my bag?" "Mmmmm, chocolate!" So, he ate it all up!

Next he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to Grandma's house. There he met Grandma. "I'm hungry," said Grandma. "What have you got in your bag?" Unfortunately, there was only the chocolate wrapper.

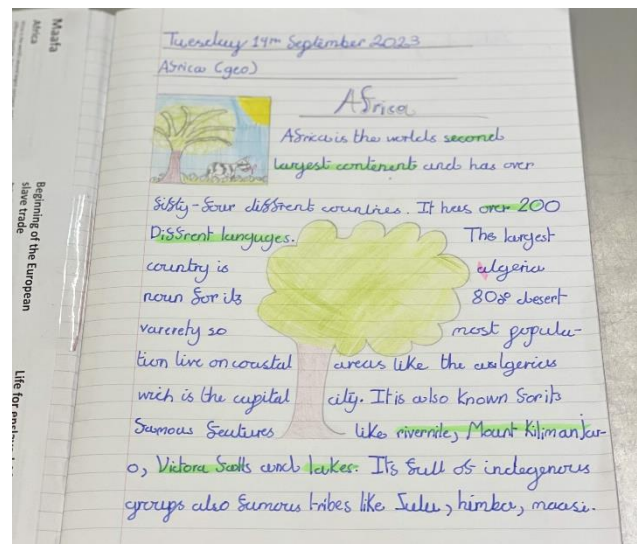

Luckily, grandma had pizza and chips for tea.
